Defendant-Intervenor, NAC Group, Inc. ("NAC"), moved for summary judgment on its First Counterclaim against plaintiffs, Zelpro Assembly Solutions, LLC, Circuit Manufacturing, Inc., and Calvin Rasmussen. Oral argument on NAC's motion for summary judgment was had before the Honorable Judge Michael W. Mosman on May 28, 2013. NAC was represented by Corey Tolliver. Plaintiffs were represented by Leonard DuBoff. Defendant Stingl Products,

LLC was represented by Garret Garfield. Defendants David Stingl and Tony Sirianni were represented by Troy G. Sexton. The Court having considered the briefing, oral argument, and the court file, grants NAC's motion for summary judgment on NAC's First Counterclaim against plaintiffs.

NAC Group, Inc. shall have priority over plaintiffs, Zelpro Assembly Solutions, LLC, Circuit Manufacturing, Inc., and Calvin Rasmussen to any and all funds, property, or proceeds collected or received from any defendant in these proceedings until NAC Group, Inc.'s judgment against Circuit Manufacturing, Inc. entered in the case of NAC Group, Inc. v. Circuit Manufacturing, Inc., Clackamas County Case No. CV10010238 (Feb. 23, 2011) ("Circuit Money Judgment") is satisfied in full, including accrued interest.

Plaintiffs and their counsel shall immediately transfer to NAC's counsel, Folawn Alterman & Richardson, LLP, all money collected or received from defendants in this action, including $10,000 currently held in plaintiffs' counsel's trust account. NAC will apply the $10,000 towards satisfaction of the Circuit Money Judgment.

NAC is awarded its costs from plaintiffs in the amount of $120.54.
